

Your Cheeky Pandas books!

To mark Her Majesty's Platinum Jubilee, we are giving away many thousands of FREE Cheeky Pandas story books. As we think about Her Majesty The Queen's faithful service, these books help children and families consider the faithfulness of our God who loves us. You can order as many as you need from www.cheekypandas.com/free-book. They have been charitably funded to reach as many children as possible, with loads of extra resources including songs and TV episodes! Here are some ways to make the most of this free resource:

With churches and children's groups

There are free activity packs with crafts, prayers, recipes and games, with full sessions for children's church on themes including faithfulness, at cheekypandas.com/resources and Raise Up Faith (below). These go with short Cheeky Pandas TV episodes available on YouTube and Vimeo.

With your children

Once you've enjoyed reading the book with your child, grandchild or godchildren, go online to find songs and Cheeky Pandas TV episodes! Do spread the word too.

For schools

There are assembly packs online at cheekypandas.com/resources for primary school aged children.

What else is available?

- All our fabulous TV episodes are available on our YouTube Cheeky Pandas channel, and on Vimeo.
- We'd love for you to use these songs at home, in assemblies, church services and children's ministry! Listen now on APPLE MUSIC, SPOTIFY or AMAZON MUSIC. We also have action and lyric videos for you to use.
- Sign up at cheekypandas.com to hear about new free resources, songs and TV episodes.
- There is a treasure trove of treehouse-based Cheeky Pandas resources on the Raise Up Faith platform, with songs, videos, crafts, stories and games, and exclusive, multimedia teaching resources for children's church, to entertain and introduce children to Jesus.
